

Republic of the Philippines
Department of Finance
INSURANCE COMMISSION
1071 United Nations Avenue
Manila

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC ON SOLICITATION SCAMS

The public is hereby warned of ongoing bogus solicitations by unidentified individuals and groups who use the INSURANCE COMMISSION and/or COMMISSIONER DENNIS B. FUNA in their illegal acts of soliciting monetary consideration purporting to be used in office-related activities or for some benevolent purposes. These individuals would use different modus operandi which would go as far as pretending to be Commissioner Funa. These individuals likewise utilize all kinds of communications media to perpetrate their illegal acts either via phone call, text messages, electronic mail and social media platforms.

The INSURANCE COMMISSION and COMMISSIONER DENNIS B. FUNA has never authorized anyone to solicit or raise funds on its/his behalf nor it has allowed itself/himself to endorse or tolerate any money-making activity for the benefit of the office or any particular individual or group. These kinds of illegal and appalling activities being perpetrated by swindlers are strongly condemned.

If you received or know of any suspected scams and bogus solicitations involving the Insurance Commission and/or the name of Commissioner Dennis B. Funa, please report them to the nearest law enforcement office such as the Philippine National Police and the National Bureau of Investigation or to the Insurance Commission at telephone numbers (02) 404-1758 or (02) 523-8461 to 70 local 102 or 103 or by email at reportscam@insurance.gov.ph

P.S. August 30, 2017